

Ms. Ulyarta Naibaho

Partner

Background Uly is an experienced and versatile litigator and joint head of ABNR's award-winning Disputes & ADR Dept. Her work in contentious matters extends across all industry sectors and practice areas, with a particular emphasis on commercial, shipping, FDI, mining, cybersecurity / cybercrime, administrative law, hate speech, corporate crime and environmental disputes. She also frequently represents clients in arbitration proceedings and other alternative dispute resolution forums including enforcement of court judgment and arbitration award.

In addition, she regularly assists clients with anti-corruption and compliance matters, including heading up anti-corruption and compliance audits and providing training on such issues.

As ABNR is a leading Indonesian law firm for project finance & development, Uly frequently advises clients in administrative disputes related to major infrastructure projects, such as power plants and ports.

She also regularly advises foreign clients on cybercrime issues.
