Marlon Mikail

Associate

Background

Marlon, an associate at ABNR, focuses his practice on restructuring & insolvency, and dispute resolution.

In restructuring & insolvency, he advises clients on debt restructuring and bankruptcy in business and investment projects. He also frequently represents clients as creditors in both bankruptcy and debt restructuring proceedings before the commercial court, most notably in the USD 488 million debt restructuring of local Indonesian airline PT Sriwijaya Air, which was approved by the commercial court in July 2023.

In dispute resolution, he represents clients in commercial disputes arising from breaches of contract or tort, acting variously on behalf of plaintiffs or defendants. He also has extensive experience advising clients on civil procedure law and in criminal cases.

In addition, he frequently represents clients at arbitration, including, most recently, a leading medical devices distributor in an ad hoc arbitration proceeding conducted in Jakarta under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL Rules). He has also been involved in a number of due diligence projects for M&A, capital markets, and project finance transactions.

Marlon graduated from the University of Indonesia in 2021, majoring in state administrative law. He joined ABNR in December 2022. Previously, he practiced at another prominent Indonesian law firm, where he specialized in commercial litigation, arbitration, and general corporate.
