Putra Ariyavira

Associate

Background

Putra, an associate at ABNR, specializes in foreign direct investment, and corporate and aviation matters.

In aviation, he has extensive experience advising clients on aircraft-related transactions and financing, including risk analysis and all aspects of the Indonesian regulatory regime. Over the years, he has been involved in many of Indonesia's largest aviation matters, including the court-supervised debt restructuring of national flag carrier PT Garuda Indonesia (Persero), Tbk.

He has also worked on transactions and projects in a variety of other fields, including general corporate and foreign direct investment, and has gained extensive regulatory knowledge in these areas.

Putra earned his law degree in 2007 at Parahyangan University, Bandung, where he majored in public international law, following which he studied at the University of Adelaide and was awarded an LL.M. degree in 2008. He has been with ABNR since 2009, and was admitted to the Indonesian bar in 2019.

Putra is fluent in English and is an Indonesian Native Speaker.
