

Karina Widyaputri

Senior Associate

Background

Karina focuses on foreign direct investment (FDI), general corporate, and mergers & acquisitions (M&A), with a particular focus on pharmaceutical and life sciences.

In FDI, she has assisted domestic and foreign investors engaged in a range of activities from trading and services to manufacturing. Her advice has encompassed all aspects of doing business in Indonesia, including the establishment of foreign investment companies, business licensing and approval (and use of OSS, the government online investment licensing portal), plus regulatory and general compliance matters.

Her general corporate advice has involved management of day-to-day corporate affairs and compliance matters of prominent multinationals, including one engaged in multi-level marketing, plus a Germany-based chemicals undertaking and a Japan-based trader and manufacturer.

In M&A, she has worked on the acquisition of a number of companies as part of a project for the development of an integrated upstream-to-downstream lithium-ion battery project in Indonesia, and the acquisition of multiple warehousing enterprises in Indonesia by a Thailand-based company.

In pharma and life sciences, she has advised leading multinationals on regulatory and compliance issues.

Karina graduated cum laude in law from Pelita Harapan University, Tangerang, majoring in business law, and joined ABNR in 2012.
