Maya Djatirman

Associate

Background

Maya is an experienced associate at ABNR whose practice centers on banking & project finance, mergers & acquisitions (M&A), and general corporate matters.

In banking & project finance, Maya has advised both lenders and sponsors on some of Indonesia's largest and most complex power infrastructure projects, with a particular focus on financing structures and security arrangements. Her transactional portfolio includes the Tanjung Jati B Expansion Project, Sarulla Project, Banten IPP, Wampu and Semangka Hydroelectric Projects, Central Java PPP Project, Kalsel 200-MW coal-fired power plant, Cirebon Expansion Project, and the Muara Laboh and Rantau Dedap Geothermal Projects.

She was also a member of the ABNR team that represented over 30 of the world's leading aircraft and engine lessors, manufacturers, and aviation vendors in the USD 9.8 billion court-sanctioned debt restructuring of PT Garuda Indonesia (Persero) Tbk–Indonesia's largest-ever court-supervised restructuring by asset value and creditor count, and one of the most significant in Southeast Asia.

In M&A and general corporate, Maya regularly advises on domestic and cross-border acquisitions, corporate restructuring, and investment structuring across sectors including energy, plantations, and manufacturing. She has contributed to transactions involving public offerings, bond issuances, share acquisitions, and corporate compliance matters, and frequently supports clients with labor and employment issues linked to transactional and operational restructuring.

Maya joined ABNR as an associate in 2010 after completing an internship with the firm. She earned her law degree in 2008 from Parahyangan Catholic University, Indonesia. During her academic years, she represented Indonesia in several prestigious international moot court competitions, including the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition in Washington D.C., the Asia Cup in Tokyo, the Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot in Sydney, and the Harvard National Model United Nations in Boston.
