Partner

Background

Uly is an experienced and versatile litigator and joint head of ABNR's award-winning Disputes & ADR Dept. Her work in contentious matters extends across all industry sectors and practice areas, with a particular emphasis on commercial, shipping, FDI, mining, cybersecurity / cybercrime, administrative law, hate speech, corporate crime and environmental disputes. She also frequently represents clients in arbitration proceedings and other alternative dispute resolution forums including enforcement of court judgment and arbitration award.

In addition, she regularly assists clients with anti-corruption and compliance matters, including heading up anti-corruption and compliance audits and providing training on such issues.

As ABNR is a leading Indonesian law firm for project finance & development, Uly frequently advises clients in administrative disputes related to major infrastructure projects, such as power plants and ports.

She also regularly advises foreign clients on cybercrime issues.

Uly, who holds an LL.M degree in mineral law & policy from the University of Dundee, Scotland, had extensive experience as in-house counsel with a number of private-sector companies prior to joining ABNR. She is lauded as a "Next Generation Partner" for Shipping and is recommended for Dispute Resolution by The Legal 500 Asia Pacific, and is recommended for Dispute Resolution by Chambers Asia Pacific.
